Dear :

This letter responds to an October 19, 1999 letter and subsequent correspondence that X's authorized representative submitted on behalf of X concerning relief under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that X incorporated on Date 1 of Year 1. X's accountant advised X to be an S corporation for Year 2. X relied on X's attorney to file a Form 2553 (Election by a Small Business Corporation) for X for Year 2. However, X's attorney failed to file the form. Believing that a Form 2553 had been filed, X filed a Form 1120S (U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation) for Year 2. Subsequently, X discovered that Form 2553 had not been filed when it received a letter from its service center indicating that it had no record of a Form 2553 having been filed for X.

Section 1362(b)(5) of the Code provides that if-- (A) an election under § 1362(a) for any taxable year is made after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making such election for such taxable year or no such election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, the Secretary may treat such an election as timely made for such taxable year.

Based solely on the facts and the representations submitted, we conclude that X has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation for X's Year 2 taxable year. Accordingly, provided that X makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 with the appropriate service center effective for Year 2, within 60 days following the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for X's Year 2 taxable year. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553.

Except as specifically set forth above, we express no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code, including whether X was or is a small business corporation under § 1361(b) of the Code.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent. Pursuant to a power of attorney on file, a copy of this letter is being sent to X's authorized representative.

Sincerely yours,

H. GRACE KIM
