Purpose of Form

If you cashed series EE U.S. savings bonds in 1997 that were issued after 1989, you may be able to exclude from your income part or all of the interest on those bonds. Use Form 8815 to figure the amount of any interest you may exclude.

Who May Take the Exclusion

You may take the exclusion if all four of the following apply:

1. You cashed qualified U.S. savings bonds in 1997 that were issued after 1989.
2. You paid qualified higher education expenses in 1997 for yourself, your spouse, or your dependents.

3. Your filing status is any status except married filing separately.
4. Your modified AGI (adjusted gross income) is less than $65,850 (less than $106,250 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)). See the line 9 instructions to figure your modified AGI.

U.S. Savings Bonds That Qualify for Exclusion

To qualify for the exclusion, the bonds must be series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989 in your name, or, if you are married, they may be issued in your name and your spouse's name. Also, you must have been age 24 or older before the bonds were issued. A bond bought by a parent and issued in the name of his or her child under age 24 does not qualify for the exclusion by the parent or child. Bond information may be verified with Department of the Treasury records.

Recordkeeping Requirements

Keep the following to verify the amount of interest you exclude:

- Bills, receipts, canceled checks, or other documents showing you paid qualified higher education expenses in 1997.
- A written record of each post-1989 series EE U.S. savings bond that you cash. Your written record must include the serial number, issue date, face value, and total redemption proceeds (principal and interest) of each bond. You may use Form 8818, Optional Form To Record Redemption of Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989.
