Introduction

This publication explains the federal income tax rules for social security benefits and equivalent tier 1 railroad retirement benefits. It is prepared through the joint efforts of the Internal Revenue Service, the Social Security Administration (SSA), and the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB).

When the term "benefits" is used in this publication, it applies to both social security benefits and equivalent tier 1 railroad retirement benefits.

Social security benefits include monthly survivor and disability benefits. They do not include supplemental security income (SSI) payments, which are not taxable.

Equivalent tier 1 railroad retirement benefits are the part of tier 1 benefits that a railroad employee or beneficiary would have been entitled to receive under the social security system. They are commonly called the social security equivalent benefit (SSEB) portion of tier 1 benefits.

If you received these benefits during 1998, you should have received a Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099 (Form SSA-1042S or Form RRB-1042S if you are a nonresident alien) showing the amount.

What is covered in this publication. This publication covers the following topics:

- Whether any of your benefits are taxable,
- How much is taxable,
- How to report taxable benefits,
- How to treat lump-sum benefit payments, and
- Deductions related to your benefits, including a deduction you can claim if your repayments are more than your gross benefits.

The Appendix at the end of this publication explains items shown on your Forms SSA-1099, SSA-1042S, RRB-1099, or RRB-1042S.

What is not covered in this publication. This publication does not cover the tax rules for the following railroad retirement benefits:

- Non-social security equivalent benefit (NSSEB) portion of tier 1 benefits,
- Tier 2 benefits,
- Vested dual benefits, and
- Supplemental annuity benefits.

For information on these benefits, see Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income.

This publication also does not cover the tax rules for foreign social security or railroad retirement benefits. These are taxable as annuities, unless they are exempt from U.S. tax under a treaty.

Are Any of Your Benefits Taxable?

To find out whether any of your benefits are taxable, compare the base amount for your filing status with the total of:

- 1) One-half of your benefits, plus
- 2) All your other income, including tax-exempt interest.

Exclusions. When making this comparison, do not reduce your income by any exclusions for:

- Interest from qualified U.S. savings bonds,
- Employer-provided adoption benefits,

- Foreign earned income or foreign housing, or
- Income earned in American Samoa or Puerto Rico by bona fide residents.

RRB issues Form RRB-1099 and Form RRB-1042S while SSA issues Form SSA-1099 and Form SSA-1042S. These forms (tax statements) report the amounts paid, repaid, and taxes withheld for a tax year. You may receive more than one Form RRB-1099, Form RRB-1042S, Form SSA-1099, and/or Form SSA-1042S for the same tax year. You should add the amounts shown on all forms you receive from the SSA and/or RRB for the same tax year to determine the "total" amounts paid, repaid, and taxes withheld for that tax year. See Appendix, at the end of this publication.

Figuring total income. To figure the total of one-half of your benefits plus your other income, use the worksheet later in this discussion. If the total is more than your base amount, part of your benefits is taxable.

If the only income you received during 1998 was your social security or the SSEB portion of tier 1 railroad retirement benefits, your benefits generally are not taxable and you probably do not have to file a return. If you have income in addition to your benefits, you may have to file a return even if none of your benefits are taxable.

If you are married and file a joint return for 1998, you and your spouse must combine your incomes and your benefits to figure whether any of your combined benefits are taxable. Even if your spouse did not receive any benefits, you must add your spouse's income to yours to figure whether any of your benefits are taxable.

Base amount. Your base amount is:

- $25,000 if you are single, head of household, or qualifying widow(er),
- $25,000 if you are married filing separately and lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998,
- $32,000 if you are married filing jointly, or
- $-0- if you are married filing separately and lived with your spouse at any time during 1998.

Worksheet. You can use the following worksheet to figure the amount of income to compare with your base amount. This is a quick way to check whether some of your benefits may be taxable.

A. Write in the amount from box 5 of all your Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099. Include the full amount of any lump-sum benefit payments received in 1998, for 1998 and earlier years, if you choose to report the full amount for the 1998 tax year. (If you received more than one form, combine the amounts from box 5 and write in the total.) ..... A. _____

Note. If the amount on line A is zero or less, stop here; none of your benefits are taxable this year.

B. Enter one-half of the amount on line A ..... B. _____

C. Add your taxable pensions, wages, interest, dividends, and other taxable income and write in the total ..... C. _____

D. Write in any tax-exempt interest (such as interest on municipal bonds) plus any exclusions from income (shown in the list under Exclusions, earlier). ..... D. _____

E. Add lines B, C, and D and write in the total ..... E. _____

Note. Compare the amount on line E to your base amount for your filing status. If the amount on line E equals or is less than the base amount for your filing status, none of your benefits are taxable this year. If the amount on line E is more than your base amount, some of your benefits may be taxable. You need to complete Worksheet 1 to find out if they are.

Example. You and your spouse are filing a joint return for 1998 and you both received social security benefits during the year. In January 1999, you received a Form SSA-1099 showing net benefits of $6,600 in box 5. Your spouse received a Form SSA-1099 showing net benefits of $2,400 in box 5. You also received a taxable pension of $10,000 and interest income of $500. You did not have any tax-exempt interest income. Your benefits are not taxable for 1998 because your income, as figured in the following worksheet, is not more than your base amount ($32,000).

A. Write in the amount from box 5 of all your Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099. Include the full amount of any lump-sum benefit payments received in 1998, for 1998 and earlier years. (If you received more than one form, combine the amounts from box 5 and write in the total.) ..... A. $9,000

Note. If the amount on line A is zero or less, stop here; none of your benefits are taxable this year.

B. Enter one-half of the amount on line A ..... B. 4,500

C. Add your taxable pensions, wages, interest, dividends, and other taxable income and write in the total ..... C. 10,500

D. Write in any tax-exempt interest income (such as interest on municipal bonds) plus any exclusions from income shown in the list under Exclusions, earlier. .... D. -0-

E. Add lines B, C, and D and write in the total ..... E. $15,000

Note. Compare the amount on line E to your base amount for your filing status. If the amount on line E equals or is less than the base amount for your filing status, none of your benefits are taxable this year. If the amount on line E is more than your base amount, some of your benefits may be taxable. You need to complete Worksheet 1 to find out if they are.

Who is taxed. The person who has the legal right to receive the benefits must determine whether the benefits are taxable. For example, if you and your child receive benefits, but the check for your child is made out in your name, you must use only your part of the benefits to see whether any benefits are taxable to you. The part that belongs to your child must be added to your child's other income to see whether any of those benefits are taxable to the child.

Repayment of benefits. Any repayment of benefits you made during 1998 must be subtracted from the gross benefits you received in 1998. It does not matter whether the repayment was for a benefit you received in 1998 or in an earlier year. If you repaid more than the gross benefits you received in 1998, see Repayments More Than Gross Benefits, later.

Your gross benefits are shown in box 3 of Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099. Your repayments are shown in box 4. The amount in box 5 shows your net benefits for 1998 (box 3 minus box 4). Use the amount in box 5 to figure whether any of your benefits are taxable.

Example. In 1997, you received $3,000 in social security benefits, and in 1998 you received $2,700. In March 1998, the Social Security Administration notified you that you should have received only $2,500 in benefits in 1997. During 1998, you repaid $500 to the Social Security Administration. The Form SSA-1099 you received for 1998 shows $2,700 in box 3 (gross amount) and $500 in box 4 (repayment). The amount in box 5 shows your net benefits of $2,200 ($2,700 minus $500).

Tax withholding and estimated tax. You can choose to have federal income tax withheld from your social security benefits and/or the SSEB portion of your tier 1 railroad retirement benefits. If you choose to do this, you must complete a Form W-4V. You can choose withholding at 7%, 15%, 28%, or 31% of your total benefit payment.

If part of your benefits is taxable, you may have to request additional withholding from other income or pay estimated tax during the year. For details, get Publication 505 or the instructions for Form 1040-ES.

Nonresident aliens. If you are a nonresident alien, the rules discussed in this publication do not apply to you. Instead, 85% of your benefits are taxed at a 30% rate, unless exempt (or subject to a lower rate) by treaty. You will receive a Form SSA-1042S or Form RRB-1042S showing the amount of your benefits. These forms will also show the tax rate and the amount of tax withheld from your benefits.

Under treaties with all of the following countries, residents of these countries are exempt from U.S. tax on their benefits.

- Canada.
- Egypt.
- Germany.
- Ireland.
- Israel.
- Italy.
- Japan.
- Romania.
- The United Kingdom.

Under a treaty with India, benefits paid to individuals who are both residents and nationals of India are exempt from U.S. tax if the benefits are for services performed for the United States, its subdivisions, or local authorities.

If you are a resident of Switzerland, 85% of your benefits are taxed at a 15% rate.

For more information, get Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

How To Report Your Benefits

If part of your benefits is taxable, you must use Form 1040 or Form 1040A. You cannot use Form 1040EZ.

Reporting on Form 1040. Report your net benefits (the amount in box 5 of your Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099) on line 20a and the taxable part on line 20b. If you are married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998, also enter "D" to the left of line 20a.

Reporting on Form 1040A. Report your net benefits (the amount in box 5 of your Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099) on line 13a and the taxable part on line 13b. If you are married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998, also enter "D" to the right of the word "benefits" on line 13a.

Benefits not taxable. If none of your benefits are taxable, do not report any of them on your tax return. But if you are married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998, make the following entries. On Form 1040, enter "D" to the left of line 20a and "-0-" on line 20b. On Form 1040A, enter "D" to the right of the word "benefits" on line 13a and "-0-" on line 13b.

How Much Is Taxable?

If part of your benefits is taxable, how much is taxable depends on the total amount of your benefits and other income. Generally, the higher that total amount, the greater the taxable part of your benefits.

Maximum taxable part. The taxable part of your benefits cannot usually be more than 50%. However, up to 85% of your benefits can be taxable if one of the following situations applies to you.

- 1) The total of one-half of your benefits and all your other income is more than $34,000 ($44,000 if you are married filing jointly), or
- 2) You are married filing separately and lived with your spouse at any time during 1998.

Which worksheet to use. A worksheet to figure your taxable benefits is in the instructions for your Form 1040 or 1040A. You can use either that worksheet or Worksheet 1 in this publication, unless one of the following situations applies to you.

- 1) You contributed to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA) and your IRA deduction is limited because you or your spouse is covered by a retirement plan at work. In this situation you must use the special worksheets in Appendix B of Publication 590 to figure both your IRA deduction and your taxable benefits.
- 2) Situation (1) does not apply and you take an exclusion for interest from qualified U.S. savings bonds (Form 8815), for adoption benefits (Form 8839), for foreign earned income or housing (Form 2555 or Form 2555-EZ), or for income earned in American Samoa (Form 4563) or Puerto Rico by bona fide residents. In this situation, you must use Worksheet 1 in this publication to figure your taxable benefits.
- 3) You received a lump-sum payment for an earlier year. In this situation, also complete Worksheet 2 or 3 and Worksheet 4 in this publication. See Lump-Sum Election, later.

Examples

The following pages contain a few examples you can use as a guide to figure the taxable part of your benefits.

Example 1.

George White is single and files Form 1040 for 1998. In addition to receiving social security payments, he received a fully taxable pension of $18,600, wages from a part-time job of $9,400, and taxable interest income of $990, for a total of $28,990. He received a Form SSA-1099 in January 1999 that shows his net social security benefits of $5,980 in box 5. To figure his taxable benefits, George completed Worksheet 1, shown below. On line 20a of his Form 1040, George enters his net benefits of $5,980. On line 20b, he enters his taxable benefits of $2,990.

Example 3.

Joe and Betty Johnson file a joint return on Form 1040 for 1998. Joe is a retired railroad worker and in 1998 received the social security equivalent portion of tier 1 benefits. Joe's Form RRB-1099 shows $10,000 in box 5. Betty is a retired government worker and received a fully taxable pension of $38,000. They had $2,300 in interest income plus interest of $200 on a qualified U.S. saving bond. The savings bond interest qualified for exclusion. Thus, they have a total income of $40,300. They figure their taxable benefits by completing Worksheet 1 below. Because the income on line 7 of the worksheet ($45,500) is more than $44,000, the taxable part of Joe's benefits is more than 50% of his net benefits. (See Maximum taxable part under How Much Is Taxable earlier.) Joe and Betty enter $10,000 on line 20a, Form 1040, and $6,275 on line 20b, Form 1040.

Filled-in Worksheet 1. Figuring Your Taxable Benefits

Form 1040A: Enter "D" to the right of the word "benefits" on line 13a, then go to question 1.

1. Enter the total amount from box 5 of ALL your Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099 . . . . .	1.	10,000

Example 4.

Bill and Eileen Jones are married and live together, but file separate Form 1040 returns for 1998. Bill earned $8,000 during 1998. The only other income he had for the year was $4,000 net social security benefits (box 5 of his Form SSA-1099). Bill figures his taxable benefits by completing Worksheet 1 below. He must include 85% of his social security benefits in his taxable income because he is married filing separately and lived with his spouse during 1998. See How Much Is Taxable earlier.

Lump-Sum Election

You must include the taxable part of a lump-sum (retroactive) payment of benefits received in 1998 in your 1998 income, even if the payment includes benefits for an earlier year.

TIP This type of lump-sum benefit payment should not be confused with the lump-sum death benefit that both the SSA and RRB pay to many of their beneficiaries. No part of the lump-sum death benefit is subject to tax.

Generally, you use your 1998 income to figure the taxable part of the total benefits received in 1998. However, you may be able to figure the taxable part of a lump-sum payment for an earlier year separately, using your income for the earlier year. You can elect this method if it lowers your taxable benefits.

Under the lump-sum election method, you refigure the taxable part of all your benefits for the earlier year (including the lump-sum payment) using that year's income. Then, you subtract any taxable benefits for that year that you previously reported. The remainder is the taxable part of the lump-sum payment. Add it to the taxable part of your benefits for 1998 (figured without the lump-sum payment).

CAUTION Since the earlier year's taxable benefits are included in your 1998 income, no adjustment is made to the earlier year's return. Do not file an amended return for the earlier year.

Will the lump-sum election method lower your taxable benefits? To find out, take the following steps:

- 1) Complete Worksheet 1 in this publication,
- 2) Complete Worksheet 2 and Worksheet 3 as appropriate. Use Worksheet 2 if your lump-sum payment was for a year after 1993. Use Worksheet 3 if it was for 1993 or an earlier year. Complete a separate Worksheet 2 or Worksheet 3 for each earlier year for which you received the lump-sum payment,
- 3) Complete Worksheet 4, and
- 4) Compare the taxable benefits on line 18 of Worksheet 1 with the taxable benefits on line 20 of Worksheet 4.

If the taxable benefits on Worksheet 4 are lower than the taxable benefits on Worksheet 1, you can choose to report the lower amount on your return.

Making the election. If you choose to report your taxable benefits under the lump-sum election method, follow the instructions at the bottom of Worksheet 4. Do not attach the completed worksheets to your return. Keep them with your records.

Once you elect this method of figuring the taxable part of a lump-sum payment, you can revoke your election only with the consent of the Internal Revenue Service.

Lump-sum payment reported on Form SSA-1099 or RRB-1099. If you received a lump-sum payment in 1998 that includes benefits for one or more earlier years after 1983, it will be included in box 3 of either Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099. That part of any lump-sum payment for years before 1984 is not taxed and will not be shown on the form. The form will also show the year the payment is for. However, Form RRB-1099 will not show a breakdown by year of any lump-sum payment for years before 1996—you must write to the RRB for a breakdown by year for any amount shown in box 9. For the address, see the explanation of Box 9 under Form RRB-1099 in the Appendix.

Example

Jane Jackson is single. In 1997 she applied for social security disability benefits but was told she was ineligible. She appealed the decision and won. In 1998, she received a lump-sum payment of $6,000, of which $2,000 was for 1997 and $4,000 was for 1998. Jane also received $5,000 in social security benefits in 1998, so her total benefits in 1998 were $11,000. Jane's other income for 1997 and 1998 follows:

Income	1997	1998
Wages	$20,000	$ 3,500
Interest income	2,000	2,500
Dividend income	1,000	1,500
Fully taxable pension		18,000
Total income	$23,000	$25,500

To see if the lump-sum election method results in lower taxable benefits, she completes Worksheets 1, 2, and 4 from this publication. She does not need to complete Worksheet 3 since her lump-sum payment was for years after 1993.

Jane completes Worksheet 1 to find the amount of her taxable benefits for 1998 under the regular method. She completes Worksheet 2 to find the taxable part of the lump-sum payment for 1997 under the lump-sum election method. She completes Worksheet 4 to decide if the lump-sum election method will lower her taxable benefits. The filled-in worksheets are shown on the following pages.

After completing the worksheets, Jane compares the amounts from line 20 of Worksheet 4 and line 18 of Worksheet 1. Because the amount on Worksheet 4 is smaller, she chooses to use the lump-sum election method. To do this, she prints "LSE" to the left of line 20a on Form 1040. She then enters $11,000 on line 20a of Form 1040 and her taxable benefits of $2,500 on line 20b.

Jane's filled-in worksheets (1, 2, and 4) follow.

Deductions Related to Your Benefits

You may be entitled to deduct certain amounts related to the benefits you receive.

Disability payments. You may have received disability payments from your employer or an insurance company that you included as income on your tax return in an earlier year. If you received a lump-sum payment from SSA or RRB, and you had to repay the employer or insurance company for the disability payments, you can take an itemized deduction for the part of the payments you included in gross income in the earlier year. If the amount you repay is more than $3,000, you may be able to claim a tax credit instead. Claim the deduction or credit in the same way explained under Repayments of benefits received in an earlier year, in the section Repayments More Than Gross Benefits, later.

Legal expenses. You can usually deduct legal expenses that you pay or incur to produce or collect taxable income or in connection with the determination, collection, or refund of any tax.

Legal expenses for collecting the taxable part of your benefits are deductible as a miscellaneous deduction on line 22, Schedule A (Form 1040).

Repayments More Than Gross Benefits

In some situations, your Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099 will show that the total benefits you repaid (box 4) are more than the gross benefits (box 3) you received. If this occurred, your net benefits in box 5 will be a negative figure (a figure in parentheses) and none of your benefits will be taxable. If you receive more than one form, a negative figure in box 5 of one form is used to offset a positive figure in box 5 of another form for that same year.

If you have any questions about this negative figure, contact your local Social Security Administration office or your local U.S. Railroad Retirement Board field office.

Joint return. If you and your spouse file a joint return, and your Form SSA-1099 or RRB-1099 has a negative figure in box 5, but your spouse's does not, subtract the amount in box 5 of your form from the amount in box 5 of your spouse's form. You do this to get your net benefits when figuring if your combined benefits are taxable.

Example. John and Mary file a joint return for 1998. John received Form SSA-1099 showing $3,000 in box 5. Mary also received Form SSA-1099 and the amount in box 5 was ($500). John and Mary will use $2,500 ($3,000 minus $500) as the amount of their net benefits when figuring if any of their combined benefits are taxable.

Repayment of benefits received in an earlier year. If the total amount shown in box 5 of all of your Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099 is a negative figure, you can take an itemized deduction for the part of this negative figure that represents benefits you included in gross income in an earlier year.

If this deduction is $3,000 or less, it is subject to the 2%-of-adjusted-gross-income limit that applies to certain miscellaneous itemized deductions. Claim it on line 22, Schedule A (Form 1040).

If this deduction is more than $3,000, you should figure your tax two ways:

- 1) Figure your tax for 1998 with the itemized deduction. This more-than-$3,000 deduction is not subject to the 2%-of-adjusted-gross-income limit that applies to certain miscellaneous itemized deductions.
- 2) Figure your tax for 1998 in the following steps:
  - a) Figure the tax without the itemized deduction.
  - b) For each year after 1983 for which part of the negative figure represents a repayment of benefits, refigure your taxable benefits as if your total benefits for the year were reduced by that part of the negative figure. Then refigure the tax for that year.
  - c) Subtract the total of the refigured tax amounts in (b) from the total of your actual tax amounts.
  - d) Subtract the result in (c) from the result in (a).

Compare the tax figured in methods (1) and (2). Your tax for 1998 is the smaller of the two amounts. If method (1) results in less tax, take the itemized deduction on line 27, Schedule A (Form 1040). If method (2) results in less tax, claim a credit for the applicable amount — the amount figured in 2(c)— on line 63 of Form 1040 and write "I.R.C. 1341" in the margin to the left of line 63. If both methods produce the same tax, deduct the repayment on line 27, Schedule A (Form 1040).

Appendix

This appendix explains items shown on Form SSA-1099 and Form RRB-1099. Forms SSA-1042S and RRB-1042S, for nonresident aliens, contain the same items plus a few additional ones. These are also explained.

The illustrated versions of Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099 in this appendix are proof copies of the forms as they appeared when this publication went to print. The information on the illustrated forms should be essentially the same as the information on the form you received from either the SSA or the RRB. You should, however, compare the form you received with the one shown in this publication to note any differences.

Form SSA-1099

Every person who received social security benefits will receive a Form SSA-1099. If you receive benefits on more than one social security record, you may get more than one Form SSA-1099. IRS Notice 703 will be enclosed with this form. It contains a worksheet to help you figure if any of your benefits are taxable. Do not mail Notice 703 to either the IRS or the SSA.

Box 1—Name

The name shown in this box refers to the person for whom the social security benefits shown on the statement were paid. If you received benefits for yourself, your name will be shown.

Box 2—Beneficiary's Social Security Number

This is the social security number, if known, of the person named in box 1.

In all your correspondence with the Social Security Administration, be sure to use the claim number shown in box 8.

Box 3—Benefits Paid in 1998

The figure shown in this box is the total benefits paid in 1998 to you (the person named in box 1). This figure may not agree with the amounts you actually received because adjustments may have been made to your benefits before you received them. An asterisk (*) after the figure shown in this box means that it includes benefits received in 1998 for one or more earlier years.

Description of Amount in Box 3

This part of the form describes the items included in the amount shown in box 3. It lists the benefits paid and any adjustments made. Only the adjustments that apply to you will be shown. If no adjustments were made to the benefits paid, the word "none" will be shown.

Amounts paid by check or direct deposits. This is the amount you actually received or that was deposited directly into your account in a financial institution in 1998.

Additions. The following adjustment items may have been deducted from your benefits in 1998. If amounts appear on your Form SSA-1099 next to these items, they will be added to the amount shown in Amounts paid by check or direct deposit.

Do not reduce the amount of net social security benefits (box 5) by any of the items listed below. Use the amount in box 5 to figure taxable social security.

Medicare premiums paid for you. If you have Medicare premiums deducted from your benefits, this is the amount withheld during 1998. The basic monthly premium in 1998 was $43.80, but it could be higher if you enrolled after you were first eligible or if you had a break in coverage.

Workers' compensation offset. If you are disabled and receive workers' compensation or Part C Black Lung payments, your benefits are subject to a payment limit. An entry will be shown here if your benefits were reduced to stay within this limit. An entry will also be shown here if your benefits were reduced because the person on whose social security record you were paid is disabled and also received workers' compensation or Part C Black Lung payments.

Fees paid to an attorney or other legal obligations. If you had an attorney handle your social security claim, the figure shown here is the fee withheld from your benefits and paid directly to your attorney. In addition, if you are required to pay child support or alimony and these payments were withheld from your benefits, the entry here shows the total payments withheld.

Deductions for work or other adjustments. Amounts withheld from your benefits because of work or to recover an overpayment of any type of benefit are benefits paid to you and will be shown here. They also may be treated as benefits repaid to SSA and included in the amount in box 4.

Amounts withheld to recover SSI payments. Part of a person's supplemental security income (SSI) payments is withheld if that person also receives social security benefits. When a person applies for both social security benefits and SSI payments, the SSI payments may sometimes be made before a decision on the person's social security claim is made. After the person is found eligible for social security benefits, the amount that should have been withheld from the SSI payments is deducted from the social security benefits. This amount is considered part of your social security benefits. An entry here means that an amount was deducted from your social security benefits to recover part of your SSI payments.

Total Additions. The figure shown here is the sum of the amounts paid by check or direct deposit plus all the additions described previously.

Subtractions. The following adjustment items may have been included in the payments you received in 1998. If amounts appear on your Form SSA-1099 next to these items, they will be subtracted from the figure in Total Additions.

Payments for months before December 1983. The figure shown here is the amount of benefits you received in 1998 that was for months before December 1983. These benefits are not taxable no matter when they are paid.

Lump-sum death payment. The lump-sum death payment is not subject to tax. An entry here means you received this kind of payment in 1998.

Amounts refunded to you. The amount shown here may include Medicare premiums you paid in excess of the amount actually due. It also may include amounts withheld in 1997 to pay your attorney in excess of the fee actually paid.

Total Subtractions. The figure shown here is the sum of all the subtractions described previously.

Benefits for 1998. The amount shown here is the result of subtracting the figure in Total Subtractions from the figure in Total Additions. This amount is the same as that shown in box 3.

*Box 3 includes $_____ paid in 1998 for 1997, 1996, and other tax years. The figure shown here is the amount of any lump-sum benefit payment received in 1998 that is for an earlier year after 1983. See Lump-Sum Election, earlier, for a full discussion on how these payments are handled.

Box 4—Benefits Repaid to SSA in 1998

The figure shown in this box is the total amount of benefits you repaid to SSA in 1998.

Description of Amount in Box 4

This part of the form describes the items included in the amount shown in box 4. It lists the amount of benefit checks you returned to SSA and any adjustments for other types of repayments. The amounts listed include all amounts repaid in 1998, no matter when the benefits were received. Only the repayments that apply to you will be shown. If you did not make any repayments, the word "none" will be shown.

Amounts of any of your social security checks that were returned to SSA. If any of your benefit checks were returned to SSA, the total is shown here.

Adjustments for work and/or overpayments. If any amounts were withheld from your benefits because of work or to recover an overpayment of retirement, survivors, or disability benefits, the total will be shown here. This may also be shown as Deductions for work or other adjustments under Description of Amount in Box 3.

Amounts paid to SSA in cash, or by personal check or money order, etc., excluding Medicare premiums. This is the amount you repaid to SSA by direct remittance.

Benefits Repaid to SSA in 1998. The amount shown here is the sum of all your repayments. This total is the same as that shown in box 4.

Box 5—Net Benefits for 1998 (Box 3 minus Box 4)

The figure in this box is the net benefits paid to you for the year. It is the result of subtracting the figure in box 4 from the figure in box 3. Enter this amount on line A of IRS Notice 703, or on line 1 of Worksheet 1, shown earlier, or on the worksheet in either the Form 1040 or 1040A instruction package.

If parentheses are around the figure in box 5, it means that the figure in box 4 is larger than the figure in box 3. This is a negative figure and means you repaid more money than you received in 1998. If you have any questions about this negative figure, contact your local SSA office. For more information, see Repayments More Than Gross Benefits, earlier.

Form SSA-1042S (Nonresident Aliens)

This form is for nonresident aliens. It contains the following four additional items that do not appear on Form SSA-1099.

Box 6—Rate of Tax

This is the rate at which tax was withheld from 85% of your benefits. If tax was withheld at more than one rate during the year, the percentage shown will be the tax rate in December 1998. The tax rate for most nonresident aliens is 30%. If you are a resident of Switzerland, 85% of your benefits are taxed at a 15% rate. The figure "0" will appear in this box if you were not taxed in December or if you claimed a tax treaty exemption. Benefits received by residents of Canada, Egypt, Germany, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Romania, and the United Kingdom are exempt from U.S. tax. See Publication 519 for more information on nonresident aliens.

Box 7—Amount of Tax Withheld

This is the amount of tax taken out of your social security checks. Tax is withheld for any month in which you were a nonresident alien (unless you claimed exemption under a tax treaty).

Box 8—Amount of Tax Refunded

An amount in this block shows any tax SSA refunded to you. When SSA withholds tax from your checks by mistake, they try to return it to you during the same calendar year. If SSA is unable to send the refund to you before the year ends, you must file a federal income tax return to get a refund of this tax.

Box 9—Net Tax Withheld During 1998

The figure in this box is the result of subtracting the figure in box 8 from the figure in box 7. This is the net amount of tax withheld from your benefits.

Form RRB-1099

This section explains the items shown on Form RRB-1099. If you received or repaid the social security equivalent benefit (SSEB) portion of tier 1 railroad retirement benefits or special guaranty benefits during 1998 you will receive Form RRB-1099, Payments by the Railroad Retirement Board.

If you received or repaid any non-social security equivalent benefit (NSSEB) portion of tier 1, tier 2, vested dual benefits or supplemental annuity benefits during 1998, you will receive Form RRB-1099-R, Annuities or Pensions by the Railroad Retirement Board. For more information concerning Form RRB-1099-R, see Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income.

Each beneficiary will receive his or her own Form RRB-1099. If you receive benefits on more than one railroad retirement record, you may get more than one Form RRB-1099.

Box 1—Claim No. and Payee Code

Your RRB claim number is a six- or nine-digit number preceded by an alphabetical prefix and is the number under which the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits was paid. Your payee code is the number following your claim number and is used by the RRB to identify you under your claim number.

Box 2—Recipient's Identification Number

This is the social security number, if known, of the person whose name is shown on Form RRB-1099.

Box 3—Gross Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid in 1998

The figure shown in this box is the total SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits or special guaranty benefits paid to you in 1998. It is the amount before any deductions were made for:

- Medicare premiums,
- Garnishment,
- Assignment,
- Recovery of an overpayment, including recovery of Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act benefits received while awaiting payment of your railroad retirement annuity, and
- Workers' compensation offset (explained in the description of box 6, later).

The figure in box 3 is the amount after any deductions were made for:

- Work deductions,
- Actuarial adjustment, and
- Annuity waiver.

FORM RRB-1099

DO NOT ATTACH TO YOUR INCOME TAX RETURN

Example 1. For the period January through March 1998, you received $300 ($100 x 3 months) Railroad Unemployment Insurance. You were eligible for the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits of $509 a month beginning January 1, 1998, but you did not receive your first payment until April 1998. The payment you received in April was for the first three months of 1998. However, because you received unemployment benefits during the same period, $300 was deducted from your initial benefit check. Instead of receiving $1,527 ($509 x 3 months), you received $1,227 ($1,527 — $300). For the months of April through November, you were paid your regular monthly SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits of $509. Box 3 of your Form RRB-1099 will show $5,599 ($509 x 11 months) as the gross SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits paid to you in 1998, even though you did not actually receive that amount. This is because box 3 shows the gross amount of your benefits before any reductions were made for the unemployment benefits paid to you.

Example 2. You received tier 1 benefits of $600 a month for the months of December 1997 through May 1998. Your $600 monthly tier 1 benefit consists of an SSEB portion of $250 and a non-social security equivalent benefit (NSSEB) portion of $350. Beginning in June 1998, you became entitled to Medicare, and $43.80 a month was deducted from your benefit checks for Medicare premiums. Therefore, the tier 1 payments you received for the rest of the year were $556.20 ($600 — $43.80) a month. Box 3 of your Form RRB-1099 will show the gross SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits of $3,000 ($250 x 12 months), because it is the gross SSEB amount before deductions for your Medicare premiums. (Box 11 of your Form RRB-1099 will show your Medicare premiums of $262.80 deducted from June through November 1998.) The remainder of your tier 1 payments, the NSSEB portion of $4,200 ($350 x 12 months), will be shown on the Form RRB-1099-R that you will receive along with your Form RRB-1099. The $4,200 is the gross NSSEB amount before deductions for your Medicare premiums. (The Medicare Total Premium box shown on your Form RRB-1099-R will be blank since the Medicare total will be shown in box 11 of your Form RRB-1099.) For more information on Form RRB-1099-R, see Publication 575.

Benefits paid for earlier years. The figure in box 3 includes any lump-sum benefit payment you received in 1998 that is for an earlier year after 1983. If you received a payment for an earlier year, it will be shown in box 7, 8, or 9 (described later). See Lump-Sum Election, earlier, for information on how to treat the payment.

Box 4—Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Repaid to RRB in 1998

The figure shown in this box is the total SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits you repaid to the RRB in 1998. You may have repaid a benefit by returning a check, making a cash refund, or having an amount withheld from your payments. In addition, an amount may have been withheld from your benefits to recover the SSEB overpayment incurred by someone else who is also receiving benefits under your claim number. Also, an amount may have been withheld from another benefit, such as a social security benefit, to recover an SSEB overpayment you received.

The amount in box 4 also includes any SSEB benefits you repaid in 1998 that were for one or more years before 1998. All tier 1 repayments for years before 1986 are treated entirely as SSEB benefits.

Example 1. You returned to work for your last railroad employer for the months of June through August 1998. The SSEB portion of your tier 1 benefit was $450 for each of those months. Since you are not allowed to receive benefits for any month you returned to railroad service, you have to make a repayment to the RRB. You returned the benefit check for August 1998 and made a full cash refund to the RRB for the June and July benefits you received. Box 4 of your Form RRB-1099 will show $1,350 ($450 x 3 months) as the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits you repaid to the RRB.

Example 2. From January through April 1998 you were overpaid $800 in the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits. From May through August 1998, $200 a month was withheld from your benefit payment to fully recover the $800 overpayment. Box 4 of your Form RRB-1099 will show $800 ($200 x 4 months) as the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits you repaid to the RRB.

Example 3. As a retired railroad employee, you have been receiving a railroad retirement annuity, including an SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits, since 1997. You also became entitled to, and received, a social security benefit of $300 a month beginning May 1, 1998. SSA later authorized the RRB to pay that benefit. In August 1998, the RRB began paying your social security benefit to you and reduced the SSEB portion of your monthly tier 1 benefit by $300. Social security benefits of $900 covering the period May through July 1998 were kept by the RRB to offset your $900 SSEB overpayment for that same period. Box 4 of your Form RRB-1099 will show $900 as the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits you repaid to the RRB. (Note: SSA will send you Form SSA-1099, which will include the $900 in benefits paid by them.)

Box 5—Net Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid in 1998

The figure shown in this box is the net amount of the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits paid to you in 1998. It is the result of subtracting the amount in box 4 from the amount in box 3. Use this amount to determine if any of your benefits are taxable. See Are Any of Your Benefits Taxable.

If parentheses are around the figure in box 5, it means that the figure in box 4 is larger than the figure in box 3. This is a negative figure and means you repaid more money than you received in 1998. For more information, see Repayments More Than Gross Benefits, earlier.

Box 6—Workers' Compensation Offset in 1998

The figure shown in this box is the amount you received in workers' compensation benefits during the year that was used to offset the full amount of your tier 1 payments. The SSEB portions of your tier 1 benefits shown in boxes 3 and 5 include amounts by which your SSEB payments were reduced for workers' compensation benefits. Your workers' compensation amount is shown in this box separately only for your information. If you did not receive workers' compensation benefits, box 6 is blank.

Example. For 1998, your tier 1 benefit of \$450 a month is reduced to \$400 because of a \$50-a-month workers' compensation offset. Boxes 3 and 5 of your Form RRB-1099 will show \$5,400 ( $\$450 \times 12$  months) as the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits paid to you by the RRB. The \$5,400 is the amount before any deductions were made for the workers' compensation offset. Box 4 will show zero because you did not make any repayments during the year. Box 6 of your form will show \$600 ( $\$50$  workers' compensation  $\times 12$  months). In figuring if any of your benefits are taxable, you must use \$5,400 as the amount of the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits paid to you.

Boxes 7 and 8—Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid for 1997 or 1996

The figure shown in each applicable box is the amount of SSEB benefits paid to you in 1998 that was for 1997 or 1996. This amount is included in the amount shown in box 3.

Box 9—Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid for Years Prior to 1996

The figure shown in this box is the amount of SSEB benefits paid to you in 1998 that was for 1996 and earlier years after 1983. This amount is included in the amount shown in box 3. The entire tier 1 benefit paid before 1986 is treated as an SSEB benefit.

If you believe the amount in box 9 covers benefits for more than one year, you can request a breakdown of the amount by year. Write to:

U.S. Railroad Retirement Board
Attn: BTRS— 11th Floor
844 N. Rush Street
Chicago, IL 60611-2092

Box 10—Federal Income Tax Withheld

The figure shown in this box is the total amount of U.S. federal income tax withheld on your tier 1 SSEB payments. This total is based on the amount of SSEB tax withholding requested on IRS Form W-4V, Voluntary Withholding Request. Include this amount on your income tax return as tax withheld.

In some cases, a tax withholding amount may be shown in this box even though you did not request SSEB tax withholding. This may happen if you previously had taxes withheld from your pension payments (NSSEB, tier 2, and/or vested dual benefit), but the taxability of those payments has since changed. In these cases, the tax withholding amount is applied to the SSEB since that is your only taxable component.

Box 11—Medicare Premium Total

This is for information purposes only. This is the total amount of Part B Medicare premiums deducted from your railroad retirement annuity payments in 1998. Medicare premium refunds will not be included in this total. The Medicare total is normally shown on Form RRB-1099. However, if Form RRB-1099 is not required for your 1998 taxes, then this total will be shown on Form RRB-1099-R. If your Medicare premiums were deducted from your social security benefits, paid by a third party, and/or you paid the premiums by direct billing, your Medicare total will not be shown in this box.

Form RRB-1042S (Nonresident Aliens)

This form is for nonresident aliens. It contains the following four additional items that do not appear on Form RRB-1099.

Box 10—Country

The country where you maintain your legal residence is shown in this box. If you maintained legal residence in more than one country during the year, you will receive a separate Form RRB-1042S for each country of legal residence during the year.

Box 11—Rate of Tax

The figure in this box is the rate at which tax was withheld from 85% of the SSEB portion of tier 1 payments you received. If tax was withheld at more than one rate during the year, you will receive a separate Form RRB-1042S for each rate change during the year. The tax rate for most nonresident aliens is 30%. The figure "0%" will appear in this box if you claimed a tax treaty exemption. Benefits received by residents of Canada, Egypt, Germany, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Romania, and the United Kingdom are exempt from U.S. tax if a treaty exemption is claimed. If you are a resident of Switzerland, 85% of your benefits are taxed at a 15% rate. See Publication 519 for more information on nonresident aliens.

Box 12—Federal Tax Withheld

The figure in this box is the total amount of U.S. federal income tax withheld from the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefit payments you received in 1998. Tax is withheld for any month in which you were a nonresident alien (unless you claimed exemption under a tax treaty).

Box 13—Medicare Premium Total

This is for information purposes. This is the total amount of Part B Medicare premiums deducted from your railroad retirement annuity payments in 1998. Medicare premium refunds will not be included in the Medicare total. The Medicare total is normally shown on Form RRB-1042S. However, if Form RRB-1042S is not required for your 1998 taxes, then this total will be shown on Form RRB-1099-R. If your Medicare premiums were deducted from your social security benefits, paid by a third party, and/or you paid the premiums by direct billing, your Medicare total will not be shown in this box.

TIP You should contact your nearest RRB field office (if you reside in the United States) or U.S. consulate/embassy (if you reside outside of the United States) for assistance with your RRB tax statement inquiries.
