General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form. Partnerships and S corporations use Form 8752 to figure and report the payment required under section 7519 or to obtain a refund of net prior year payments. Such payments are required of any partnership or S corporation that has elected under section 444 to have a tax year other than a required tax year.

Who Must File. An entity classified as a partnership or S corporation for Federal income tax purposes must file Form 8752 if it made a section 444 election by filing Form 8716, Election To Have a Tax Year Other Than a Required Tax Year, and its election is still in effect for the tax year. Any tax year for which a section 444 election is in effect, including the first tax year the section 444 election is made, is an "applicable election year." A partnership or S corporation that terminates its section 444 election or liquidates must file Form 8752 to claim a refund of its net required payment balance.

Do not file Form 8752 for a personal service corporation (as defined in Temporary Regulations section 1.441-4T). Instead, file Schedule H (Form 1120), Section 280H Limitations for a Personal Service Corporation (PSC), with the corporation's income tax return.

When To File. For applicable election years beginning in 2000, Form 8752 must be filed and the required payment made on or before May 15, 2001.

However, Temporary Regulations section 1.444-3T(b)(4)(iii) provides a special rule that extends the due date for filing Form 8752 and making the required payment related to certain back-up section 444 elections.

An entity without a principal office or agency or principal place of business in the United States must file Form 8752 with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

Penalties. If the required payment is not made by the due date, the entity may have to pay a penalty equal to 10% of the underpayment. For this purpose, "underpayment" means the excess of the required payment over the amount (if any) of such payment made on or before the due date for the applicable election year. The penalty will not be imposed if the entity can show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause. If you include this penalty with the entity's payment, identify and enter the penalty amount in the bottom margin of page 1. Do not include the penalty in the Required payment due on line 11.

The accuracy-related penalty and the fraud penalty may also apply.

Amended Return. To correct an error in a Form 8752 already filed, file an amended Form 8752 and write "AMENDED RETURN" across the top.

Specific Instructions

Address. Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the entity has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

Line B. If an applicable election year is the entity's first year of existence (i.e., it is a newly formed entity and therefore does not have a base year), the required payment for such applicable election year is zero.

Line C. If the entity terminated its section 444 election and the termination took effect for a tax year ending in 2000, or the entity liquidated during a tax year ending in 2000, check this box. The entity should claim a full refund of the net required payment balance shown on line 10.

A partnership's section 444 election ends if the partnership changes its accounting period to its required tax year or some other permitted year, it is penalized for willfully failing to comply with the requirements of section 7519, or it becomes a member of a tiered structure and the same tax year exception does not apply (see Temporary Regulations section 1.444-2T).

An S corporation's section 444 election ends if it changes its accounting period to a calendar year or some other permitted year, it is penalized for willfully failing to comply with the requirements of section 7519, it becomes a member of a tiered structure and the same tax year exception does not apply (see Temporary Regulations section 1.444-2T), or its S corporation election terminates (unless it immediately becomes a personal service corporation).

See Temporary Regulations section 1.444-1T(a)(5)(ii) for the effective date of the termination of a section 444 election.

Line 1—Net income for base year. The term "base year" means the tax year preceding the applicable election year. For example, if you are completing Form 8752 for the applicable election year beginning October 1, 2000, and ending September 30, 2001, the base year is the tax year beginning October 1, 1999, and ending September 30, 2000.

For partnerships, line 1 net income is the aggregate (not less than zero) of the partnership's items of income and expense, other than tax-exempt income, nondeductible expenses, and guaranteed payments under section 707(c). When figuring this amount, disregard any limitations at the partner level. For base years beginning in 1999, line 1 should equal the amount on the 1999 Form 1065, line 1 of Analysis of Net Income (Loss), plus the aggregate items of income and expense, if any, reported on the attachment for Schedule K, line 24 (but not less than zero).

For S corporations, line 1 net income is the aggregate (not less than zero) of the corporation's items of income and expense, other than tax-exempt income and nondeductible expenses. When figuring this amount, disregard any limitations at the shareholder level. For base years beginning in 1999, line 1 should equal the amount on the 1999 Form 1120S, Schedule K, line 23, plus the aggregate items of income and expense, if any, reported on Schedule K, line 21 (but not less than zero). For this purpose, all S corporations must complete Schedule K, line 23.

If an S corporation was a C corporation for its base year, the C corporation's taxable income is treated as the net income of the S corporation for the base year. See Temporary Regulations section 1.7519-1T(b)(5) for other details.

Line 2—Applicable payments. In general, the term "applicable payments" means any amount deductible in the base year that is includible at any time, directly or indirectly, in the gross income of any partner or shareholder who was a partner or shareholder during the base year. However, the term does not include any guaranteed payments under section 707(c). Examples of applicable payments are officer's compensation, wages, and rent paid to any partner or shareholder.

If the S corporation was a C corporation for its base year, applicable payments of the C corporation are treated as if from an S corporation.

Line 3—Deferral ratio. The deferral period covers the months between the beginning of the elected tax year and the close of the first required tax year ending within the elected tax year.

Line 9b. If you enter zero on line 9b and you did not make any prior year required payment for which a refund can be claimed, enter zero on line 10, skip lines 11 and 12, and complete the signature section. You are required to file Form 8752 to show that you have a zero liability for the applicable election year beginning in 2000.

Line 12—Refund of net prior year payments. A refund of net prior year payments will not be made before the later of April 16, 2001, or 90 days after Form 8752 is filed (see Temporary Regulations section 1.7519-2T(a)(6)). No interest will be paid on the amount refunded.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information.
