New Record Types

Four new record types have been added to the program:

Authentication Record (for paperless filing using Self-Selected PINs)
Preparer Note Record (for use in documenting entries)
Election Explanation Record (for use in documenting entries)
Regulatory Explanation Record (for use in documenting entries)

Improvements to Form Payment Records

Electronic Filing has updated its direct debit feature to enable filers with a balance due to also authorize a direct transfer of an estimated tax payment from their checking or savings account. Electronic filers will continue to have the option of filing early and setting a date no later than April 16th for automated payment of the balance due. In addition, filers will have the option to schedule one Form 1040ES payment with an effective date of April 16, 2001; June 15, 2001, or September 17, 2001. The ACK KEY record in the Acknowledgement File will now indicate when a payment record is received on an accepted return.

Foreign Addresses

IRS e-file will be accepting electronically filed Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ with addresses from foreign countries and from the U.S. possessions of American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U. S. Virgin Islands. Addresses from the U.S. possessions will be formatted as U.S. addresses. Addresses from the foreign countries will be formatted using new foreign country address fields. All returns with foreign addresses will be transmitted to the Andover node at the Austin Service Center and acknowledged by the Andover Service Center and forwarded to the Philadelphia Service Center for final processing.

Use of Leave and Earning Statements

Although income tax returns may be prepared using a Leave and Earnings Statement or other documentation of income and federal tax withholding, the return must not be electronically filed prior to the Electronic Return Originator (ERO) receiving the related Form W-2, W-2G, or 1099-R. A Form 4852 may be used only if the taxpayer can not obtain and provide a correct Form W-2, W-2G, or 1099-R. The Form 4852 must be completed in accordance with existing instructions. These instructions are available at TeleTax Topic 154 or can be accessed by calling TeleTax on 1-800-829-4477 and selecting Topic 154. The non-standard W-2 indicator must be included in the electronic record if Form 4852 is used. EROs must retain Forms 4852 in the same manner as Forms W-2, W-2G, and 1099-R are required to be retained. EROs must never advertise that returns may be electronically filed prior to the receipt of Forms W-2, W-2G, and 1099-R as EROs are prohibited from electronically filing returns without Forms W-2, W-2G, and 1099-R except as stated above. Any violation of these rules will result in sanctioning of the ERO as described in Revenue Procedure 2000-31, published July 31, 2000 in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, 2000-31.

Self-Selected PIN

Most taxpayers are eligible to use a self-selected PIN to sign their tax returns. This can be used instead of completing and processing Form 8453. Visit our web site at http://www.irs.ustreas.gov/prod/elec_svs/ss-pin.html for more information.

General Instructions

A Change To Note

Beginning in 1998, include on lines 1 and 2 of Form 3903 only the amounts you actually paid for the expenses listed. Include on those lines the total amount you paid even if your employer reimbursed you for the expenses. Use line 4 to report amounts your employer paid directly to you for the expenses listed on lines 1 and 2 if they are not reported to you as wages on Form W-2.

Do not include on Form 3903 any amount your employer paid to a third party (such as a moving or storage company). Also, do not include the value of any services your employer provided in kind.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 3903 to figure your moving expense deduction if:

- You moved to a new principal place of work (workplace) within the United States or its possessions, OR
- You moved to a new workplace outside the United States or its possessions and you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien.

If you qualify to deduct expenses for more than one move, use a separate Form 3903 for each move.

For more details, see Pub. 521, Moving Expenses.

Who May Deduct Moving Expenses

If you moved to a different home because of a change in job location, you may be able to deduct your moving expenses. You may be able to take the deduction whether you are self-employed or an employee. But you must meet certain tests explained next.

Distance Test

Your new principal workplace must be at least 50 miles farther from your old home than your old workplace was. For example, if your old workplace was 3 miles from your old home, your new workplace must be at least 53 miles from that home. If you did not have an old workplace, your new workplace must be at least 50 miles from your old home. The distance between the two points is the shortest of the more commonly traveled routes between them.

TIP: If you are not sure if you meet the distance test, use the worksheet on this page.

Time Test

If you are an employee, you must work full time in the general area of your new workplace for at least 39 weeks during the 12 months right after you move. If you are self-employed, you must work full time in the general area of your new workplace for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months and a total of at least 78 weeks during the 24 months right after you move.

What If You Do Not Meet the Time Test Before Your Return Is Due? If you expect to meet the time test, you may deduct

Distance Test Worksheet (keep a copy for your records)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4255 to figure the increase in tax for the recapture of investment credit claimed.

Who Must Refigure the Investment Credit

Generally, you must refigure the investment credit and may have to recapture all or part of it if any of the following apply.

- You disposed of investment credit property before the end of 5 full years after the property was placed in service (recapture period).

- You changed the use of the property before the end of the recapture period so that it no longer qualifies as investment credit property.
- The business use of the property decreased before the end of the recapture period so that it no longer qualifies (in whole or in part) as investment credit property.
- Any building to which section 47(d) applies will no longer be a qualified rehabilitated building when placed in service.
- Any property to which section 48(a)(5) applies will no longer qualify as investment credit property when placed in service.
- Before the end of the recapture period, your proportionate interest was reduced by more than one-third in a partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust that allocated the cost or other basis of property to you for which you claimed a credit.

- You returned leased property (on which you claimed a credit) to the lessor before the end of the recapture period.
- A net increase in the amount of nonqualified nonrecourse financing occurred for any property to which section 49(a)(1) applied. For more details, see the instructions for line 10.

Exceptions to recapture. Recapture of the investment credit does not apply to the following.

- A transfer because of the death of the taxpayer.
- A transfer between spouses or incident to divorce under section 1041. However, a later disposition by the transferee is subject to recapture to the same extent as if the transferor had disposed of the property at the later date.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4952 to figure the amount of investment interest expense you can deduct for 2000 and the amount you can carry forward to future years. Your investment interest expense deduction is limited to your net investment income.

For additional information, see Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Who Must File

If you are an individual, estate, or a trust and you claim a deduction for investment interest expense, you must complete Form 4952 and attach it to your tax return unless all of the following apply.

- Your investment interest expense is not more than your investment income from interest and ordinary dividends.
- You have no other deductible investment expenses.
- You have no disallowed investment interest expense from 1999.

Allocation of Interest Expense Under Temporary Regulations Section 1.163-8T

If you paid or accrued interest on a loan and used the loan proceeds for more than one purpose, you may have to allocate the interest. This is necessary because different rules apply to investment interest, personal interest, trade or business interest, home mortgage interest, and passive activity interest. See Pub. 535, Business Expenses.

Specific Instructions

Part I—Total Investment Interest Expense

Line 1

Enter the investment interest expense paid or accrued during the tax year, regardless of when you incurred the indebtedness.

Investment interest expense is interest paid or accrued on a loan (or part of a loan) that is allocable to property held for investment (as defined later).

Include investment interest expense reported to you on Schedule K-1 from a partnership or an S corporation. Include amortization of bond premium on taxable bonds purchased after October 22, 1986, but before January 1, 1988, unless you elected to offset amortizable bond premium against the interest payments on the bond. A taxable bond is a bond on which the interest is includible in gross income.

Investment interest expense does not include any of the following.

- Home mortgage interest.
- Interest expense that is properly allocable to a passive activity. Generally, a passive activity is any business activity in which you do not materially participate and any rental activity. See the separate instructions for Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations, for details.
- Any interest expense that is capitalized, such as construction interest subject to section 263A.
- Interest expense related to tax-exempt interest income under section 265.
- Interest expense, disallowed under section 264, on indebtedness with respect to life insurance, endowment, or annuity contracts issued after June 8, 1997, even if the proceeds were used to purchase any property held for investment.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8271 to report the tax shelter registration number the IRS assigns to certain tax shelters required to be registered under section 6111 ("registration- required tax shelters") and to report the name and identifying number of the tax shelter. This information must be reported even if the particular interest is producing net income for the filer of Form 8271. Use additional forms to report more than 10 tax shelter registration numbers.

Note: A tax shelter registration number does not indicate that the tax shelter or its claimed tax benefits have been reviewed, examined, or approved by the IRS.

Who Must File

Any person claiming or reporting any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or reporting any income on any tax return from an interest purchased or otherwise acquired in a registration- required tax shelter must file Form 8271. If you are an investor in a partnership or an S corporation, look at item G, Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), or item C, Schedule K-1 (Form 1120S). If a tax shelter registration number or the words "Applied for" appear there, then the entity is a registration-required tax shelter. If the interest is purchased or otherwise acquired by a pass-through entity, both the pass-through entity and its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries must file Form 8271.

A pass-through entity that is the registration-required tax shelter does not have to prepare Form 8271 and give copies to its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries unless the pass-through entity itself has invested in a registration-required tax shelter.

In certain cases, a tax shelter that does not expect to reduce the cumulative tax liability of any investor during the 5-year period ending after the date the investment is first offered for sale may be considered a "projected income investment." Such a tax shelter will not have to register, and thus not have to furnish a tax shelter registration number to investors, unless and until it ceases to be a projected income investment. It is possible, therefore, that you may not be furnished a tax shelter registration number, and not have to report it, for several years after you purchase or otherwise acquire your interest in the tax shelter. If you are later furnished a tax shelter registration number because the tax shelter ceased to be a projected income investment, follow these instructions. However, you must file Form 8271 only for tax years ending on or after the date the tax shelter ceases to be a projected income investment.

Note: Even if you have an interest in a registration-required tax shelter, you do not have to file Form 8271 if you did not claim or report any deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit, or report any income on your tax return from an interest in the registration-required tax shelter. This could occur, for example, if for a particular year you are unable to claim any portion of a loss because of the passive activity loss limitations, and that loss is the only tax item reported to you from the shelter.

Filing Form 8271

Attach Form 8271 to any return on which a deduction, loss, credit, or other tax benefit is claimed or reported, or any income reported, from an interest in a registration-required tax shelter. These returns include applications for tentative refunds (Forms 1045 and 1139) and amended returns (Forms 1040X and 1120X).

Furnishing Copies of Form 8271 to Investors

A pass-through entity that has invested in a registration-required tax shelter must furnish copies of its Form 8271 to its partners, shareholders, or beneficiaries.

However, in the case where (a) the pass-through entity acquired at least a 50% interest in one tax year in a registered tax shelter (and in which it had not held an interest in a prior year), and (b) the investment would not meet the definition of a tax shelter immediately following the acquisition if it had been offered for sale at that time, the pass-through entity need not distribute copies of Form 8271 to its investors. The pass-through entity alone is required to prepare Form 8271 and include it with the entity tax return.

Penalty For Not Including Registration Number on Return

A $250 penalty will be charged for each failure to include a tax shelter registration number on a return on which it is required to be included unless the failure is due to reasonable cause.

Injured Spouse Claim and Allocation

Are You an Injured Spouse?

You are an injured spouse if you file a joint return and all or part of your share of the overpayment was, or is expected to be, applied (offset) against your spouse's past-due Federal tax, child or spousal support, Federal nontax debt (such as a student loan) or state income tax. Complete Form 8379 if all three of the following apply and you want your share of the overpayment shown on the joint return refunded to you. But if your main home was in a community property state (see line 6 below), you may file Form 8379 if only item 1 below applies.

1. You are not required to pay the past-due amount.
2. You reported income such as wages, taxable interest, etc. on the joint return.
3. You made and reported payments such as Federal income tax withheld from your wages or estimated tax payments, OR you claimed the earned income credit or other refundable credit, on the joint return.

Do not use this form if you are requesting relief from liability for tax that you believe should be paid only by your spouse (or former spouse). Instead, file Form 8857, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief.

How Do You File Form 8379?

- If you have not filed your joint return, attach Form 8379 behind your return in the order of the attachment sequence number. Enter "Injured Spouse" in the upper left corner of the return. Because the IRS will process your claim before an offset occurs, filing Form 8379 with your original return may delay your refund by 6 to 8 weeks.

- If you have already filed the joint tax return, mail Form 8379 by itself to the Internal Revenue Service Center for the place where you lived when you filed the joint return. See your tax return instruction booklet for the address. Be sure to include copies of all W-2 forms of both spouses and any Forms 1099-R showing income tax withheld. The processing of your claim may be delayed if you do not include these copies. Please allow at least 8 weeks for the IRS to process your claim.

Note. The Treasury Department's Financial Management Service (FMS), not the IRS, is authorized to apply (offset) all or part of the joint refund to past-due child or spousal support, Federal nontax debt, or state income tax. If you also owe past-due child or spousal support, Federal nontax debt, or state income tax, the FMS will apply all or part of your share of the refund to the debt. If an offset occurs, you will receive a notice from the FMS.

Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return

It's Convenient,
Safe, and Secure

IRS e-file is the IRS's electronic filing program. Now you can get an automatic extension of time to file your tax return by filing Form 4868 electronically by April 16, 2001. You will receive an electronic acknowledgment or confirmation number once you complete the transaction. Keep it with your records. Do not send in Form 4868 if you file electronically.

If you think you may owe tax and wish to make a payment, you may pay by direct debit using option 1 or 2 below or you may pay by credit card using option 3.

First, complete Form 4868 to use as a worksheet; then, take advantage of one of the three IRS e-file options listed below.

1 E-file by Phone—April 1-16

Call 1-888-796-1074 toll free. Be sure to have a copy of last year's tax return — you will be asked to provide two pieces of information from the return for taxpayer verification. If you wish to make a payment, you can pay by direct debit (see page 4) or send your check to the address shown on page 4.

2 E-file Using Your Personal Computer or Through a Tax Professional

Refer to your tax software package or tax preparer for ways to file electronically. Be sure to have a copy of last year's tax return — you will be asked to provide two pieces of information from the return for taxpayer verification. If you wish to make a payment, you can pay by direct debit (see page 4) or send your check to the address shown on page 4.

3 E-file and Pay by Credit Card

You can get an extension if you pay part or all of your estimate of income tax due by using a credit card (American Express® Card, Discover® Card or MasterCard® card). Your payment must be at least $1. You may pay by phone or over the Internet through one of the service providers listed below.

Each service provider will charge a convenience fee based on the amount of the tax payment you are making. Fees may vary between service providers. You will be told what the fee is during the transaction and will have the option to continue or cancel the transaction. You may also obtain the convenience fee by calling the service providers' automated customer service numbers or visiting their Web Sites. All calls are toll free. Do not add the convenience fee to your tax payment.

Form 709 or 709-A. Although an extension of time to file your income tax return also extends the time to file Form 709 or 709-A, you cannot make payments of the gift or GST tax with a credit card. To make a payment of the gift or GST tax, send a check or money order to the service center where the donor's income tax return will be filed. Enter "2000 Form 709" and the donor's name and social security number on the payment.

File a Paper Form 4868

If you wish to file on paper instead of electronically, fill in the Form 4868 below and mail it to the address shown on page 4.
