

New Revision of Publication 954, Tax Incentives for Empowerment Zones and Other Distressed Communities

Announcement 2001-65

Publication 954, revised June 2001, is now available from the Internal Revenue Service. It replaces the February 1999 revision.

This publication is primarily for business owners who want to find out whether they qualify for certain tax incentives created to increase business activity in distressed communities.

You can get a copy of this publication by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676). You can also write to the IRS Forms Distribution Center nearest you. Check your income tax package for the address. The publication is also available on the IRS Internet Web site at www.irs.gov.