PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that when we ask you for information about yourself, we state our legal right to do so, tell you why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it, and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory. Our legal right to ask for the information is Public Law 92-463 and Executive Order (E.O.) 9397. We are asking for the information in order to perform Federal income tax, FBI, and practitioner checks as required of all members and applicants to the Advisory Committee on Tax Exempt and Government Entities (ACT).

Supplying the information is voluntary and not directly required by law, but facilitates the processing of your application for membership in the IRS Advisory Committee on Tax Exempt and Government Entities. Requesting your social security number, which is solicited under authority of E.O. 9397, is also voluntary and no right, benefit, or privilege provided by law will be denied as a result of refusal to disclose it. However, not providing all or any part of the information may limit consideration of your application.

Tax Check Waiver

I am signing this waiver to permit the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to release information about me which would otherwise be confidential. This information will be used in connection with my application for/appointment to/membership in the IRS Advisory Committee on Tax Exempt and Government Entities (ACT). This waiver is made pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 6103(c).

I request that the IRS Office of Government Liaison and Disclosure release the following information to the appropriate IRS officials, including but not limited to the Commissioner, Tax Exempt and Government Entities.

Check One:

1. Have I failed to timely file a Federal income tax return by the required due date (determined with regard to any extension(s) of time for filing) for any of the last three years for which filing of a return might have been required? (NOTE- If the filing date [without regard to extensions] and normal processing period for the most recent year's return has not yet elapsed on the date IRS receives this waiver, and the IRS records do not indicate a return for the most recent year, the "last three years" will mean the three years preceding the year for which returns are currently being filed and processed.) No Yes

2. Have I failed to pay any tax, penalty, or interest liability during the current or last three calendar years within 10 days of the date on which the IRS gave notice of the amount due and requested payment? No Yes

3. Am I now or have I ever been under investigation by the IRS for possible criminal offenses? No Yes

4. Has any civil penalty for fraud been assessed against me during the current or last three calendar years? No Yes

5. If a return for any of the last three years was not filed, please explain why. If there was insufficient income to meet filing requirements or filing requirements were met by filing with a foreign tax agency (e.g., Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands), please describe the circumstances on page 2. No Yes
